Three Area Adult Schools to Open

Adults in the Harbor and South areas who wish to continue their education on a high school level this fall will be afforded the opportunity at three evening schools operated by the Los Angeles City School District. It was announced by Assistant Superintendent, E. M. Fred Evans, head of the system's adult schools.

The three schools serving this area, according to Evans, are Banning Adult School, 1500 N. Avalon boulevard, Wilmington; Gardena Adult School, 1301 West 182nd street, Gardena; and San Pedro Adult School, 1001 W. 15th street, San Pedro.

Registration for this area's three schools—as well as for all 27 adult schools in the Los Angeles system—will begin on Monday, September 15, and will continue for the first weeks of the term. Courses are open to any person 18 years of age or older, but high school graduates under 18 may enroll.

HAROLD J. POWERS

Powers to Be Honored Here

Civic leaders of the South Bay area will honor Lt. Gov. Harold Powers with a non-partisan testimonial dinner at 7:00 p.m. Sept. 30 at the Plush Horse Restaurant. A reception for the Lieutenant Governor will be held at 6:15 p.m.

State, county and South Bay City and Civic officials will be invited to attend, Mrs. Auten F. Bush, General Chairman of the dinner, said.

Officials from each city will give a tribute to Lt. Governor Powers. Those invited to participate in the testimonial will be from the following cities: Torrance, Palos Verdes, Rolling Hills, Hermosa Beach, Manhattan Beach, Redondo Beach, El Segundo, Rolling Hills Estates, Gardena, Inglewood, Lennox and Westchester.
